Quilt Show

- Well as far as I am concerned the show was a success. I have received many favorable comments about the show. I truly want to thank everyone who worked so hard to make the show a success and especially the Show Committee. Thank You and your husbands and family.
- Photos are posted on our website, under Quilt Shows, 2017 Quilt Show, Quilt Photos
- Admission desk – Geri Kunica - We had 444 Adults and 4 children
- Treasurer – Judy Mair - Anything
- Spool Guess Draw – Dodie Ryan - Naomi Murphy (Geri Kunica's daughter) of Milton was the closest with a guess of 528. The total amount of spools was 530.
- Toonie Draw – Judy Makinson – Anything – 206 sets of tickets sold
- Volunteers – Susan FitzGerald - Anything
- Tea Room – Carrie Latendresse - Anything
- Boutique – Anne Balaynk – Anything
- CQA Ribbon Winner was Kay Trower with her Elm Creek The Quilt Show Committee decided that the President would award the CQA Ribbon. It was very hard to decide as I am not a Judge, instructor or have been a true quilter for very long. I decide that I wanted to give the award to this quilt because it had many different block patterns, different techniques and it was hand quilted. This quilt could have been in a Canadian home 150 years ago but is also right at home today. There is a photo of Kay and her quilt on our website and on the CQA website. <https://canadianquilter.com/rosette-winners-2017/>
