President – Flo

- Flo welcomed everyone stated what a lovely spring day. We have 45 Participates on line. Flo reiterated the President's Challenge. Be the Rainbow in Someone's Cloud.
- We need a Member at Large to complete the Committee
- Flo phoned Hillcrest United Church to see if there were any plans for opening. They were not sure about what they are doing. Flo stated we would go back when it is was really safe.
- Sue said we looked into other venues to have our meetings and store our library etc. They wanted more money and had no kitchen
- Currently we are paying $200.00/meeting at Hillcrest. Joan will check with her Church.

Secretary – Nancy Perrault

- A motion was made by Sue Luque and seconded by Marian Baiadcoff to accept the January 25th and February 22nd minutes

Treasurer – Judy Mair

- Judy stated that we have received $995.00 in advertising. How many people are using them? If you are telling them you saw their advertising in our newsletter. You may be entitled to a special.

Programme – Irene Rushworth

- Irene said we have an opportunity of having Barbara Vedder, from the Pennsylvania to our speaker. It would cost $475. CDN dollars and we are asking Erin to combine with us. They will get back to us.

Newsletter – Irene Rushworth

- Irene is getting a few antidotes, suggestions for advertising, and speakers. Please keep it coming.

Block of the Month – Mary Dodd and Irene Rushworth

- The next one will be sent tonight. We are on the home stretch 2 more and then instructions

Workshops – Ida Jenkins

- The workshop on May 1st will be no charge but you need to download the pattern from Missouri Star Quilt.
- Snowball disappearing 4 patch or Disappearing 4 patch (Some of them are on sale for 3.50 US$)

Publicity – Joan Lovegrove and Christina Martin

- Not a lot to say it this time.

Library -Sheilagh Yuschyshyn
