President's Message - Sue Luque

Hi Everyone,

Well Ladies, I've seen the Robins arrive now
I'm looking forward to spring flowers!

I really enjoyed our March speaker, Sandy Lindal of Scrappy Gal Quilt Co., hope you did too.

We have several Executive positions open in June.
Since all Guilds run on volunteers, please consider helping out in one of these positions... or even sharing one with a friend!: President, Vice President, Outreach, and Publicity.

The final Exec Mtg. for this year will be held Monday May 13th at my place 7pm. Executives, please come prepared to talk about budget and final numbers.

I'm looking forward to seeing you all at the next Guild
Meeting April 22nd.

Sue

Program - Irene Rushworth & Judy Ferguson

Our guest speaker for April is Gina Uncao from

Owl Be Sewing

<https://www.owlbesewing.ca/>

Gina grew up on a small island, first learning to sew when she was 11. Between then and 2009 she didn't sew much, until one day she volunteered to teach kids to sew at a local school. She then began teaching kids to sew from home and later opened up her own store "Owl Be Sewing".

What Gina has in store for us this month..

"As a quilt shop owner I get asked a lot how to match colors together and what fabrics they should have in their stash. Because of this I will share with you my experience of shopping for fabric and how I choose the best colors for my projects and store.

I will also share my love for making bags and what I look for in fabrics when constructing a one of a kind bag."

In this test DO NOT READ the words, say aloud the COLOR of each word.

BLACK RED GREEN
PURPLE YELLOW RED

April Fat Quarter Theme is:

Lights and Neutrals!

Off-white, ivory, cream, milky coffee, cream with brown or black speckles, tone on tone, etc. They will be background fabrics.

Think of the dramatic tumbling blocks quilt that Sandy Lindal showed us during her inspiring and entertaining presentation last month!

Just a note:

Fat  $\frac{1}{4}$  Draw need to be "quilt quality 100% cotton".

Apparently there was a polyester and a polyester blend fat  $\frac{1}{4}$  in the winnings last month. We do have several new members who are new to quilting and this is a good opportunity to share helpful information that most of us take for granted now. I will have samples at the membership table of both regular cotton and quilting cotton plus polyester blends and say a few words.

We hope everyone is keeping up with our monthly installments for your own personal quilt.

Your next installment is the Northwood block which appears at the bottom of the quilt and is supposed to represent water. If I did it again I would have used darker colors.

Looking forward to seeing your progress!

Red Cross Quilts - Photos by Anne Balanyk

Here are pictures of quilts all made from the Red Cross, each quilt is hand pieced & hand Quilted. Most of the them have a lot of names on them... people paid to have their names on them..... 5 cents to 25 cents. Not a lot of quilts but the work is wonderful!

If anyone gets a chance to see them please go. I saw them in the Museum at Waterford.
