President – Teresa regrets /not present

Nancy Perrault is standing in to host this month’s meeting.

- Welcome to our January meeting. Irene attached stars to our name tags as we entered. We were asked to sit at the stations matching the colours of our stars. It was a rather starry night.
- Teresa hopes all will read and think about her challenge she posted in her President’s Message in this month’s newsletter, along with the next few items on her “Bucket List”
- The kitchen situation seemed to be resolved, but were having trouble locating our coffee pots

Past-President – Sue Luque regrets/ not present

- Exec positions needed: Vice president and Publicity these are still open
- Non exec positions needed: Sew & Chat and Retreat Host position is still open

Website Administrator - Sue Luque

- If you need something on the site updated, please let me know.

Secretary - Nancy Perrault

- Milk bags were handed in and set aside for Judy Ferguson
- Nancy gave out her phone number as it is wrong on the newsletter. Doesn’t have a home phone any more 647-227-9190

Treasurer – Vivian Desrochers stated the balance in our account had not changed since the newsletter.

Community Outreach – Vivian Desrochers

- We gave a quilt to Hospice. Vivian announced she has parts of quilts that need to be made up.

Library – Jane Symmes

- showed us some books on the Underground railroad and the prizes for the library draw

Newsletter Editor/ Newsletter Advertising – Irene Rushworth

Membership – Marg Brown

Workshop – Ida Jenkins

- Next workshop is Saturday March 7 in Acton. (Anne Balanyk – Quilt as you go). It is from 9 to 3. Price is $30.00 and bring a brown bag lunch. Supply list at next meeting if you have signed up.

Block of the Month - Mary showed us the next block

Hearts and Hugs – June Ball had nothing to report

Special Guest - Brenda Mathies spoke to us about her mother-in-law Lee and her relationship with HHQG. She told us about the challenges she and her daughter found going through all the fabric etc in a room that had been closed for many years, and now has been brought to her house. I am a sewer but not a quilter yet. She put some bindings on a couple of quilts. She brought a couple of tops, flower garden and members of Amish that were guild projects to be completed and stated she wanted them donated to one of our outreach projects

Before Break

- Make sure you are signed up for the membership draw
- Get your library and 50/50 tickets
- Check out the BOM
